

PRESS RELEASE

Members of Stuttgart's Chamber of craft visited our Shipyard

Upon the invitation of Chamber of small and medium sized industries of Piraeus, ΒΕΠ, executive members of Handwerkskammer Region Stuttgart – Stuttgart's Chamber of craft - travelled to Greece and got contact with networks of local chambers. On the first day of their visit, Thursday 25th of September they were hosted by Spanopoulos group at the homonymous new Perama shipyard.

Our shipyard was chosen by ΒΕΠ, as a distinguished Greek enterprise in the maritime sector. Mr. Ignatios Spanopoulos, president of the group, his family and executive members of the staff welcomed the German representatives and guided them around the premises, which are in line with the best and latest marine industry practices.

Finishing the tour, the guests enjoyed the beautiful Attica evening and delicious Greek food at the roof garden of the shipyard. Mr. Rainer Reichhold, President of Stuttgart's Chamber of craft, expressed his gratitude for our hospitality and Mr. Claus Munkwitz, General Director, made very positive comments for our shipyard placing emphasis on the contribution of family owned and operated firms in all business sectors.

Near the end of the event, Mrs. Aggela Spanopoulos delivered a pleasant speech highlighting the importance of team work as the ideal way to effect progress & development.

Dear Mr. Ignatios Spanopoulos,
dear Mr. Michael Spanopoulos, having returned to Germany, we would like to express our deepest gratitude to you, your family and your leading staff for the wonderful reception of our delegation in your company the first evening of our stay in Greece.

We very much enjoyed every minute with you. Visiting your family wharf was a new experience for us, the philosophy of your company, your service orientation and your management-strategy impressive.

Thank you also for your hospitality with the hearty get together at the delicious dinner buffet.

Whenever we could do any favor to you or a member of your staff, please do not hesitate to contact us.

We would be happy to keep in touch with you somehow.

Yours

Rainer Reichhold
